

The Tulsa Tribune

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1987

Mayfest kicked off at gala preview party

“NIGHT OF Mayfestivity,” a kickoff celebration for Tulsa International Mayfest, drew a large crowd Tuesday night to the upper level of the Shops of the Williams Center for a preview of the festival's sights and sounds.

The invitational event, underwritten by the Westin Hotel, included a cocktail buffet, music by Mozart On Fifth, and a special preview exhibition and sale of works by 25 artists from the Mayfest juried art fair.

Complimenting Tulsa artist Peggy McGivern on her painting entitled “We’ll Just Slip Away” were Joan and Harry Seay, Nancy and Ray Feldman, Kay Holmes, Sally and Richard Minshall and Polly and Dr. Franklin Nelson.